WINE ROUTE OF THE MAIPO VALLEY

The Maipo valley is one of the oldest wine valleys in South America and Chile's most important in the production of red wines. It is located at 42 kilometers south east from Santiago, at the foot of the Andes Mountains.

Our day will begin early on our way to the Andes' foot, where we will visit one of the most historical and traditional wineries in Chile. Once there, an old house of Spanish architecture will welcome us in their gardens and cellar to taste some of their best productions.

Later, after a typical Chilean lunch, we will move onto a new level of wine development, represented by boutique wineries with more specialized productions that have evolved to craft wines of an excellent quality, competitive on international markets, and under an exclusive production; we will taste their best wines.

TOUR INFORMATION

- From Monday to Sunday
- Starting time: Recommended at 9:00 am
- Length: Approximately 8 hours
- Recommended wineries: Concha y Toro, Santa Rita, and Haras de Pirque
- Suggestions: Take sunscreen, sunglasses, hat, and jacket

TOUR INCLUDES

- Private tour guide
- Professional driver
- Private Transport from and to Hotel
- Tour with wine tasting in two wineries
- Bottled mineral water
- Passenger seat insurance

WINE ROUTE OF THE CASABLANCA VALLEY

Located at 50 minutes west from Santiago, we will find this beautiful valley that reunites more than 20 wineries specialized in white wines, producing mostly Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc grapes.

In the 80's, we discovered the special properties of this cold-weather valley that is located between the Cordillera de la Costa and the Pacific Ocean. We invite you to know this beautiful wine route where you will visit two of the most prestigious wineries of the valley, with two very different styles of wine production; one that reproduces the style of production used in 1500 and another that is the first organic winery of Chile. Between the visits to both wineries, we will have lunch in a restaurant where typical and gourmet gastronomy are mixed together with wine-pairing of some of the best wines of the valley.

TOUR INFORMATION

- From Monday to Sunday
- Starting time: Recommended at 9:00 am
- Length: Approximately 8 hours
- Recommended wineries: Bodegas Re, Casas del Bosque, Loma Larga, and Emiliana
- Suggestions: Take sunscreen, sunglasses, hat, and jacket

WINE ROUTE OF THE COLCHAGUA VALLEY

The Colchagua Valley is located at 180 kilometers south from Santiago and it is surrounded by an amazing landscape. It has been nominated as one of the best valleys in the world to grow grapes like Cabernet Sauvignon, Carménère, Syrah, and Pinot Noir. Inside Colchagua you can find a micro-valley called Apalta, which has been recognized as the most awarded valley of the country.

Early in the morning we will leave the Maipo Valley on our way to the south. Crossing the Cachapoal Valley, we will arrive in Apalta, valley of premium wines. There we will visit two prestigious wineries in order to taste their finest wines in a unique and magical surrounding.

For lunch we will visit a winery that will delight us with their exclusive dishes and wine-pairing of their greatest grape varieties, showing us the best of Chilean cuisine and viticulture.

TOUR INFORMATION

- From Monday to Sunday
- Starting time: Recommended at 8:00 am
- Length: Approximately 9 hours
- Recommended wineries: Lapostolle, Montes, and Viu Manent

WINE ROUTE OF THE ACONCAGUA VALLEY

We invite you to visit the Aconcagua Valley, located at 90 kilometers north east from Santiago and that is characterized by the production of wine and artisan-made liquors such as chicha, aguardiente, pipeño, and other distilled spirits.

We will leave Santiago heading north and after an hour of travel, we will go into a mountain landscape of green hills and beautiful farming areas, arriving then to our first winery that has been awarded internationally

After the winery, we will visit a local restaurant where we will taste Chilean food with a gourmet style, pairing with excellent wines of the valley. After lunch, we will visit our second winery where you could experience a different way of wine production, showing us boutique bottles of the best quality. After visiting its vineyard, we will taste some of their finest wines.

TOUR INFORMATION

- From Monday to Sunday
- Starting time: Recommended at 8:00 am
- Length: Approximately 8 hours
- Recommended wineries: Errázuriz, Von Siebenthal, and San Esteban

WINE ROUTE OF THE ACONCAGUA VALLEY & PORTILLO

We invite you to visit the Aconcagua Valley, located at 90 kilometers north east from Santiago and that is characterized by the production of wine and artisan-made liquors such as chicha, aguardiente, pipeño, and other distilled spirits. Here you could visit one of the most prestigious wineries in the area.

We will continue our visit to the Portillo Ski Resort, which is located in the Andes Mountains at 2.860 meters above sea level and 164 kilometers north from Santiago. Portillo is famous for its ski tracks, Hotel, and the Inca Lake.

Portillo is the oldest ski resort of South America and hosted the World Ski Championship in 1966. Here, apart from enjoying the amazing views of the Andes, we will taste a lunch pairing with Chilean wines.

WINE ROUTE OF THE CACHAPOAL VALLEY

Located at 130 kilometers south from Santiago is the Cachapoal Valley, based in the Chilean countryside; this valley is characterized by its farming areas of fertile soil that produce a wide variety of fruits, vegetables, and red wines.

In almost two hours from Santiago, we will visit Manor Houses that are a mix of Spanish architecture, where the country side becomes one with the Chilean Huaso; a typical man that shows his expertise of managing horses.

A tour in the countryside and wine tasting in historic cellars will show us the enormous work that involves wine production. This will be the start of our visit. Then, a lunch in a restaurant with an amazing view will delight us with its best cuisine.

After our delicious lunch, we will visit a second winery that has a complete range of wines to taste, so at the end of the day you will have a complete impression of a wide variety of Chilean wines.

TOUR INFORMATION

ANDES MOUNTAINS

ANDES EXPERIENCE & CHILEAN WINE

---

The Andes Mountains were formed at around 120 million years ago by the continuous movements of two tectonic plates, the South American and Nazca in the Pacific Ocean. This great mountain chain is the largest in the world, going from Venezuela to the Cabo de Hornos, parallel to the Pacific's coastline. Its name in Aymara language means "Mountain that illuminates."

Today we will enter in this beautiful mountain chain that has a total length of 9.000 kilometers of which 4.600 kilometers belong to Chilean territory. We will cross its hidden valleys so we can be delighted with its beautiful landscapes.

We will visit Farellones and Valle Nevado that in winter time are amazing ski resorts. In both we will feel the mountain winds and possibly watch some Chilean Condors. As optional activities, we can do a guided trekking, horseback riding, or a chairlift ride to the top of a hill.

During the day we will have lunch in a restaurant of typical Chilean food and have a technical tasting of Chile's iconic wine variety, Carménère.

CAJÓN DEL MAIPO AND EL YESO RESERVOIR

We invite you to discover the beauty and grandeur of the Andes mountains range, and one of the main areas of eco-tourism of central Chile called the Cajon del Maipo. Our tour begins with a visit to San Jose de Maipo, picturesque village founded in the year 1792 and that was declared World Heritage site because of its beautiful colonial buildings, its Church and Plaza de Armas Square, which allows us to have an interesting experience with the locals.

Then we will continue travelling deeper into the Cordillera de los Andes, where we will arrive at the magnificent and imposing El Yeso Reservoir, located at 2,500 meters above the level of the sea and main source of water for the city of Santiago. Facing this placid scenario of turquoise water, we will prepare ourselves to enjoy the silence with a delicious cocktail accompanied by Chilean wine.

CLASSIC TOUR VALPARAÍSO & VIÑA DEL MAR

We invite you to walk through the beautiful streets of Valparaiso, one of the main ports of Chile and named World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 2003. Watch from its balconies the marvelous bay and the colorful hills that have inspired famous artists like painters, architects, musicians, and poets such as Pablo Neruda.

We will discover the city like a local citizen, following the steps through the hillsides and the artistic life. Our lunch will be in a restaurant with a beautiful view of the ocean with typical sea food and pairing with Chilean wines.

Later, we will visit the city of Viña del Mar, a coastal city neighbor of Valparaiso. Its beaches and boulevards surrounded with palm trees and beautiful parks have given it the name of Ciudad Jardín (Garden City). Viña del Mar is a popular weekend and holiday destination for the people of Santiago, despite its cold waters due to the Humboldt Current.

CITY TOUR SANTIAGO & CHILEAN CULINARY

We invite you to enjoy the “Typical Chilean Gastronomy” that has born from the perfect mix of our native culinary style and the influence from the different colonies that have settled in Chile and that come from places such as Spain, Italy, Germany, and France. We will start our tour in the civic center of our city and walking through its streets we will arrive at the Central Market which was declared as National Historical Site in 1984. Today it receives hundreds of tourists who come mainly looking for typical seafood dishes such as Mariscal, Paila Marina, and fried local fish. Nowadays, the Central Market’s building has two floors and 241 different stores with wine shops, butcheries, bakeries, groceries, seafood stores, souvenirs, and restaurants.

Here you could taste exquisite flavors that are typical of Chilean gastronomy with the guidance of a local chef that will make you experience in first person the recipes that delight Chilean people every day. Diverse products coming directly from the Chilean coasts and ingredients with intense aromas will be at your disposal to taste and pairing with the best wines coming from all of our valleys.

PORTILLO & ACONCAGUA VALLEY

We invite you to visit the Aconcagua Valley, located at 90 kilometers north east from Santiago and that is characterized by the production of wine and artisan-made liquors such as chicha, aguardiente, pipeño, and other distilled spirits. Here you could visit one of the most prestigious wineries in the area.

We will continue our visit to the Portillo Ski Resort, which is located in the Andes Mountains at 2.860 meters above sea level and 164 kilometers north from Santiago. Portillo is famous for its ski tracks, Hotel, and the Inca Lake.

Portillo is the oldest ski resort of South America and hosted the World Ski Championship in 1966. Here, apart from enjoying the amazing views of the Andes, we will taste a lunch pairing with Chilean wines.

PRIVATE TRANSPORT TO SKI RESORTS

We offer an exclusive private transport service to the main ski resorts: Valle Nevado, Farellones, El Colorado, La Parva, and Portillo. Modern vehicles will take you to your destination surrounded by an amazing view of the Andes Mountains.

VALLE NEVADO: Located at 46 kilometers west from Santiago, it is one of the newest ski resorts in Chile. Inaugurated in 1988 by French entrepreneurs at the foot of El Plomo Hill, it follows the design of French ski resorts in the Alps.

FARELLONES: It is a small mountain town that becomes a ski resort in winter time. It is located at 36 kilometers from Santiago in a mountain plain at 2.340 meters above sea level. It is characterized for being a town with houses made out of wood which gives it a particular attractive feature. Farellones has its own medical center and school so its people can live there without problems throughout the year.

PORTILLO: It is the oldest ski resort of South America and hosted the World Ski Championship in 1966. Located in the Andes Mountains at 2.860 meters of altitude and 164 kilometers north from Santiago, it is famous for its tracks, great hotel, and the Inca Lake.
